Captain Francis Valentine Lewis mastered the Corinthian in 1862 and 1866 voyages, the Thomas Dickinson in 1869 and the Ocean in 1879. After retiring from the sea the Captain ran a ship supply store on the New Bedford waterfront and was caretaker aboard whalers. Mrs. Kelly's other grandfather, George Crapo, was also a captain. New members to take the Degree are Shirley St. Germain, Leonard Gregoire, Mark Breton, Neil Sylvia, Jr. and Edward McCartin.

Mrs. Mary Messier, assistant matron, joined the Junior Grange and received the obligation from the Master.

John and Joseph Alves were reported ill.

Lecturer, Marilyn Lewis presented Deputy William Gibson who showed colored slides on his trip to Germany three years ago with a load of heifers, a State Grange project.

Pictures of the heifers being loaded and unloaded from the ship and of the families receiving them and the surrounding countryside were the highlights of the pictures. The progress of the heifers was explained and how the farmers cared and shared with one another. PAJAMA GAME SUCCESSFUL

A capacity audience enjoyed the musical production of "Pajama Game" which ran Thursday, Friday and Saturday at Old Rochester Regional High School. The cast, under the direction of Zavan Mazmanian and Mrs. Aurora Anderson, put the show together in six weeks and did a remarkable job. Mr. "Maz" also was the orchestra as he furnished musical accompaniment on the piano which is a formidable task over three nights.

Standout performances were given in every department. John Matthews was strong in his comedy role, the high point of which had him modeling pajams and shorts in a very funny bit of business.

Sandra Gilbert and Myles Corey played well together in the principal roles of Babe and Sid. Sandra has a personality which projects to the back row. She and Myles carried much of the story line with many songs and they performed well together.

Deborah Macy, Warren Vaughan and David Baker were the dancing stars as they recreated the "Steam Heat" number that attracted so much attention in the original production.

Deborah and company were excellent in this and in the other numbers.

Daniel Hebert in the colorful role of Prez wore a suit to match. He was very strong in a good role with much enjoyable comedy. Corrinne Sylvia was his valuable partner in the laugh getting department. Clark Springgate as the superpowered boss and his secretary, Mary Lee DeCoffe added much to the fun. Mary made a hilarious angel.

The show was bright, brash and fast paced. It was a good mix of music and fun. The movie version eliminated the childish repetition of *#%# words which was an improvement over the written script. This was one point which might have been borrowed. Otherwise, the show appealed to most all ages and tastes. It was a fine job by some very hard working and talented people.

Others in the cast included Richard Potter, Daniel Brown, David Cowel, Marion Fernandes, Wendi Hayes, Kenneth Mosakowski and Michael Hickey.

The dance group, under the direction of Miss Corrine, included Laureene Empey, Diana Masseur, Warren Vaughan, Lourdes Duque, Michael Cobb, Roxanne Wood, Roger Metcalf and Davolyn Thorndike.

The chorus included Christine Mesarch, Ann Lacey, Catherine Gibbs, Donna Ouellette, Cheryl Heath, Marion Gibbs, Franklin Gibbs, Richard Potter, Elizabeth Maxwell, Beverly Perry, Andrea Gifford, Christine Pearson, June Stinson, Carolyn Brown, Darby Locke and Eleanor Heuberger.

The stage crew was comprised of Brian Chace, manager; Allan Rodericks, Peter Silva, Mark Springgate, Michael Collyer, curtains; Daniel Brown, lighting; and William Bristol, spotlight. Prompter was Gloria Denham.

Ushers were Beverly Andrews, Heidi Hartley, Linda Wing, Susan Bence, Karen Chase, Bonnie Reynolds, Jayne Blanchette, Jean Henry and Christine Bence. Make-up was by Mrs. Winston Bendall, Mrs. Robert Sweeney and Mrs. Francis Francotte.

THE PRESTO PRESS LETTER TO THE EDITOR
MATTAPOISETT, MASS.

Dear Sir:

I would like to commend the taxpayers in Rochester for voting against the Regional Vocational School.

Their current tax rate is in the neighborhood of $120.00 per thousand valuation, and they, as well as Mattapoisett, are faced with the expense of an addition to their Regional school, a new grade school which will certainly swamp the taxpayers with sharp increases in their taxes. To make matters worse the Legislature has passed the pay hike for teachers along with the law to eliminate citizens over 70 years of age from paying real estate taxes. The Legislature has not made any provisions to assist us in these matters with the result we will receive larger tax bills this year to pay for the above.

The promoters of the Regional Vocational School keep reminding us that the State will pay but I cannot be misled to believe this as Senator Fleming recently stated that the bottom of the money barrel was reached last year, and now the barrel has gone.

The town of Mashpee wanted the school but is financially bankrupt and under Receivership and will be heading in the same direction if more thought is not given to our ability to pay both local and State taxes which in many cases are created by pressure groups.

If a new region is formed leaving Rochester out - Rochester will benefit by being able to send their students to New Bedford Voke as there will be more room at the school when the students from the region fly to Bourne.

Now is the time to consider your ability to pay before you receive your new re-valuation tax bills.

account of her anticipated trip to the Worlds Fair.

Mrs. Borden has received several letters from Congressmen, Senators and the White House regarding Indian legislation and the Kinzua Dam, which will displace from their homes Seneca Indians living in the Allegheny River valley of western New York. Quakers feel an intense interest in the violating of the Pickering Treaty, the oldest in the National Archives, which embodied a promise by George Washington that the Seneca Nation would never be disturbed. Pennsylvania Quakers assisted the Indians in the drafting of this 1789 Treaty.

AFS MEETING

Mrs. A. Barton Cummins presided at the April meeting of the Old Rochester Chapter, American Field Service which was held at the high school. Mrs. Cummins reported that letters asking financial support of the program had recently been mailed to persons in Mattapoisett, Marion and Rochester. The sum of $700. is needed to bring over a student to this country. Contributions will be very welcome and may be mailed to Mr. Otis Severance of Marion who is treasurer.

During this school year, the Chapter has sponsored Miss Lourdes Villa Duque of the Philippines. She started her senior year at Old Rochester Regional High School in September and her American foster parents are Mr. and Mrs. Theodore W. Lacey of Main Street, Marion. The attractive young lady has made many friends this year and has taken part in numerous school activities and American Field Service programs.

Announcement of a host family in Mattapoisett for next year's student will soon be made after final word has been received from the American Field Service in New York City. It was learned from the Chapter Members' Newsletter that next year's students will arrive early. Students from the Far East will arrive in San Francisco from July 27-30. Greeks, some Africans and Middle Easterners, Indians and Thais will arrive in New York the first week in August. South Africans and most Europeans arrive in mid-August. Latin Americans will mostly arrive at the end of August. It goes without saying that the addition of a foreign student to the student body is a rewarding experience for all.

An early start on recruiting candidates is urged Tentative plans were made for a money-raising event to be held at the High School in May and Mr. Clifton Chase of Rochester was named chairman in charge of arrangements. Mr. Chase has been elected to serve as the new chairman of the Chapter for 1965-66 and will assume duties in July. Also serving on the committee are Mr. Otis Severance of Marion, tickets; Mrs. William B. Macy of Marion, posters; Mrs. Henry B. Smith of Rochester, publicity; Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hartley of Rochester, tickets; and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hirons and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Figueiredo of Mattapoisett, tickets. The entertainment will soon be announced and will be sure to appeal to all.

FELLOWSHIP TO HOST FHVN. FELLOWSHIP

The Fireside Fellowship of the Mattapoisett Congregational Church has invited the Fellowship of the First Congregational Church of Fairhaven for a pot luck supper and entertainment at 5:30 P.M. this Sunday night at the parish hall.

DEGREES CONFERRED AT GRANGE MEETING

Third and fourth degrees were conferred on two new members at Rochester Grange. Thomas Gayoski opened the meeting. Visitors represented South Middleboro, Acushnet and Wattuppa Granges. State Deputy Samuel Stone of Wattuppa Grange was escorted to the master's station where he gave a talk concerning the "dos and don'ts" relative to Grange behavior and procedures. Recognized were Lesley Thomas, master of South Middleboro Grange, and Clayton Westgate, Sippican Pomona master.

Mr. and Mrs. James Butler of New Bedford were installed as new members of the Grange. Conferring this third and fourth degrees were members from the Sippican Youth Degree team.

A rummage and food sale will be held from 9 to 5 May 9th. Donations of food, rummage, white elephants and used furniture may be left at the homes of Mrs. Floyd H. Taylor, Snipatuit Road or Mrs. Clifford Hedges, Neck Road.

Refreshments were served by Idella Borden, Mary Vaughan and Joseph Sylvaria.
